ABOUT

Lake Titicaca Full Day Tour

“IMMERSE YOURSELF IN TRADITION ON THE UROS FLOATING ISLANDS”

Discover the fascinating Uros Floating Islands, where ancient traditions thrive on man-made islands crafted from reeds. For centuries, the Uros people have lived on these floating platforms, preserving their unique culture in the heart of Lake Titicaca. As you explore the islands, you'll learn about their remarkable way of life, from reed-built homes to traditional fishing techniques.

“SAIL THE UROS ISLANDS ON A CABALLITO DE TOTORA”

Sail across Lake Titicaca aboard a traditional Caballito de Totor reed boat, a unique vessel used exclusively within the Uros community. Navigate between the floating islands, gliding through the serene waters of the lake. This authentic boat ride provides a rare opportunity to experience Uros life firsthand, showcasing ancient reed-building techniques and offering stunning views of the floating islands.

“CULTURE AND STUNNING LANDSCAPES OF TAQUILE ISLAND”

Our Lake Titicaca Full Day Tour also includes a visit to Taquile Island, a cultural gem known for its rich heritage and stunning landscapes. The island's Quechua-speaking community has preserved ancient traditions, especially its renowned weaving techniques, recognized by UNESCO as a Masterpiece of Intangible Heritage.

“DISCOVER THE MASTERFUL ARTISTRY OF TAQUILE'S WEAVERS”

On Taquile Island, the art of weaving is a vibrant tradition passed down through generations. Skilled weavers create intricate textiles using techniques that date back centuries, preserving ancient patterns and symbols. Each garment tells a story, reflecting the island's rich cultural heritage.

“GAZE AT TAQUILE ISLAND’S TERRACES AND
THE SPECTACULAR WHITE CORDILLERA
BLANCA PEAKS BEYOND”

Taquile Island offers a breathtaking panorama where history and nature converge. The island’s terraced hillsides, meticulously cultivated over centuries, provide stunning views of Lake Titicaca’s deep blue waters. From its elevated vantage points, you can gaze out at the majestic white peaks of the Cordillera Blanca on the horizon, their snow-capped summits contrasting beautifully with the lake’s azure expanse. This scenic landscape not only reflects the island’s rich agricultural heritage but also its deep connection to the surrounding Andean mountains, weaving a story of enduring tradition and natural beauty.

LAKE TITICACA FULL DAY TOUR

Boat Excursion to the Taquile Islands

TOUR DESCRIPTION

6:45 AM: Start your day with a pickup from your hotel in Puno by our friendly local guide, who will transfer you to the harbor.

We begin our boat excursion on Lake Titicaca with a visit to the Uros Floating Islands. This unique community has lived on these reed islands for decades. Centuries ago, the indigenous Uros tribe created these floating platforms to protect themselves from rival tribes like the Collas and the Incas. They harvested reeds from the lake, bundling them to build floating islands complete with reed houses and canoes. On the islands, our guide will share insights into the Uros people's lifestyle and customs. After exploring the floating islands, we continue our journey to Taquile Island, which takes approximately 2 hours.

INCLUDED:

- Pick up from your hotel in Puno and transfer to the harbor.
- Tourist boat transportation with toilet facilities on board.
- All entrance fees & Professional English speaking guide.
- Lunch included on the Taquile Island.
- Pick up from the harbor and drop off at your hotel in Puno.

NOT INCLUDED:

Extras.

“Experience the Magic of Peru’s Sacred Waters on a Lake Titicaca Full Day Tour”

Taquile is home to a traditional Quechua-speaking community known for its ancient agricultural terraces. Relatively isolated until the 1950s, Taquile's strong sense of community and family is evident.

Taquile Island's weaving tradition, dating back to early civilizations, preserves elements of pre-Inca Andean cultures. You'll see skilled artisans using pre-Inca looms to create distinctive garments like the “Chullo,” a knitted hat with earflaps, and the “Calendar Waistband,” which depicts agricultural and ritual cycles.

Upon reaching Taquile Island, we'll walk up a narrow path, taking in stunning views of Lake Titicaca and charming houses inhabited by descendants of the Inca culture. At the top, enjoy some free time to explore before meeting the group for lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch, we'll head back to the harbor and return to Puno. We aim to be back in Puno by approximately 5:00 PM.
