UNVEILING THE BEAUTY

LAKE TITICACA HOMESTAY TOUR

DAY 1 °

Uros Floating Islands & Homestay on Amantani Island.

07:30 h. Our tour starts at your hotel in Puno, our guide will pick you up from there. Shortly after that, we take you to the local harbor where we board a small motorboat.

First, we visit “The Uros Floating Islands”, a small community that has lived on reed Islands for decades.

Long ago the Uros tribe conceived on the islands as a way to isolate and protect themselves from rival tribes.

During our visit, we will learn with our local guide about their lifestyle, traditions, and beliefs.

Besides, we also take a short ride on a reed boat. After strolling around the floating Islands, we continue our boat journey to the “Amantani Island”.

Upon arrival in Amantani, a group of islanders will welcome us at the harbor. Shortly after that, we join our host family and then are escorted to their house.

Late in the afternoon, we will do a short trek towards the summit of a hill known locally as Pachamama.

Once at the top, you can appreciate the amazing views of Lake Titicaca.

Soon after sunset, we return to our house where our family will be awaiting us for dinner.

In the evening our group will gather at the local saloon where islanders celebrate a party with live music.

Our local families will provide you with traditional clothing to attend this nice party.

Men are given ponchos and wooly hats, the hats are handmade by the families, with unique styles.

Likewise, women get colorful skirts, blouses, and veils.

Overnight at a family house on the Amantani island.

Inclusions:

- 07:30 h. Pick up from your hotel in Puno and transfer to the harbor.
- Boat transportation with toilet facilities on board.

- Accommodation on Amantani Island at a family house.

“Discover Authentic Peru: Lake Titicaca Homestay Tour Experience”

Taquile Island – Return to the city of Puno.

Shortly after breakfast, we will leave towards Taquile, a traditional Quechua speaking community,

Once at the harbor of Taquile, we will walk up along a narrow path to the center of the island.

Along the way, we will enjoy stunning views, including the Bolivian mountain range.

As soon as we get to the top, our local guide will explain traditional life on Taquile.

Afterward, we visit a workshop where Taquile islanders elaborate on fine garments, including colorful hats and waistcoats.

Likewise, the iconography on their textiles reflects their way of life, nature, as well as their beliefs.

Among their garments, stands out the Calendar Waistband, which depicts the annual cycles connected to agricultural activities. Later on, you will have free time to walk around and by noon we meet up for lunch at one local restaurant.

14:00 h. Finally, we will descend to the harbor to take our boat back to Puno.
