TOUR DESCRIPTION

CAMPING TOUR ON CERRO BLANCO

DAY 1°

Day 1°: Trek to Cerro Blanco & Camping at the Summit.

Your adventure begins at 14:00 hrs with private transport from Nazca to the Andean foothills. After a scenic 25-minute drive, the trek starts along a well-marked trail. The hike begins gently and becomes more challenging as you reach the sandy slopes of Cerro Blanco.

Over the course of about 3 hours, you'll climb to the summit of the world's tallest sand dune — rising 2,080 meters above sea level. Along the way, admire panoramic views of the Andes and whimsical dune formations. At the top, take time for photos and soak in the breathtaking desert scenery.

As evening falls, your team will set up camp. From this unique perch, you'll witness an unforgettable desert sunset.

After dinner and stargazing beneath clear desert skies, settle into your tent for a night of camping on Cerro Blanco.

Inclusions:

- Hotel pick-up in Nazca.
- Private transportation.
- Dinner.
- Headlamp.
- Tent and campfire.
- Mountain sleeping bag and insulating mat.

Exclusions:

- Extras.

Sand Dune”*

Day 2°: Sunrise, Sandboarding and Descent.

Wake early to watch the sunrise over the Andes, a highlight of the tour. After breakfast, grab your sandboard and gear up for the descent.

You’ll first practice on the smaller dunes near the summit, with expert instruction from your guide. When you’re ready, it’s time for the ultimate ride: an adrenaline-filled descent down an 800-meter slope, one of the longest sandboarding runs in the world!

Once at the base of the dune, enjoy a scenic 45-minute walk downhill through the desert until reaching the pick-up point. There, private transport will return you to Nazca.

Inclusions:

- Breakfast.
- Guide and instructor.
- Sandboard equipment.
- Transport back to your hotel.

Exclusions:

- Extras and gratuities.
